A GUIDE TO CAMPUS PARKING

Revised July 2023

A Quick Summary of Parking Regulations

Commonwealth University-Bloomsburg provides parking for eligible students, faculty, staff, and visitors. All vehicles must be registered with the University Police by going to the parking website Bloomsburg.thepermitstore.com. Metered parking is available at the University Store Lot and at the Recreation Center. Parking areas shown on the university parking map, are identified by color codes. Students, faculty, and staff are issued virtual passes in accordance with the color-coded system.

Parking lot signage supersedes campus parking map — Parking on University owned or leased property is at the driver’s own risk. The University assumes no responsibility for damages or theft.

If you’re an eligible student,you must register your vehicle online at Bloomsburg.thepermitstore.com All faculty/staff vehicles must be registered at Bloomsburg.thepermitstore.com.

Students living outside an established perimeter around the University are eligible to park on campus. See map at the University Police Dept. for a detailed perimeter.

Commuter Students will park in any desgnated Black commuter lot. There is a parking fee of $40 per semester to park.

Resident hall students with 60 or more credit hours can register a vehicle and park in the First Street (Green) Lot. Students with 59 or less credits can register a vehicle and park in the Blue Lot. There is a parking fee of $40 per semester for each lot.

Students residing in Mt. Olympus, Montgomery or Jessica Kozloff apartments can register a vehicle and park in designated spaces located near each apartment complex. These lots require a parking fee of $40 per semester.

If you’re a visitor to campus, you must register your vehicle for a virtual parking pass at the University Police Station located in the Andruss Library Annex, your license plate will be your pass. Visitors may park in any legally lined area on campus. Permits can be obtained in the following locations: University Police (Andruss Library). If you’re visiting the Admissions Office, Athletic Department, Speech and Hearing Clinic, or the Reading Center visitor permits can be obtained from those departments for their specific areas.

Free round trip shuttle service is available between the upper campus and lower campus.

Parking is not allowed on University property between 2 a.m. and 6 a.m., except for the resident student lots at Mt. Olympus, Montgomery, and Jessica Kozloff apartments. Parking in these lots requires you to to register your vehicle with the University Police for the specific lot or a visitor pass from the JKA Community building.

Parking in some areas of campus is restricted for resident directors, the Community Government Association and University vehicles. Handicapped parking spaces are located throughout campus. Cars parked illegally in restricted areas can be towed at the operator’s expense. The operator can be fined.

Parking Fines

University Police parking fines are $15 for most tickets and vehicles can be ticketed hourly. Tickets are to be paid on line at bloomsburg.thepermitstore.com.

Violators who get three or more parking tickets, with one or more unpaid, for at least 20 days prior to the current violation, will have their vehicle booted and/or towed at the owner’s or driver’s expense.

Individuals who illegally park in a fire lane or handicapped space will receive a Commonwealth University citation or a Pennsylvania traffic citation that will be filed with the magisterial district judge. The fines for illegally parking in a handicap spaces carries a $50 to $200 fine. Parking in a fire lane carries a fine of $50. Bloomsburg Town Police enforce parking on East Second Street and have their own fine structure.
