THE FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT OF 1974
(F.E.R.P.A.)

Annually, Bloomsburg University informs students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. This Act, with which the institution intends to comply fully, was designated to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review the educational records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students also have the right to file complaints with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office (FERPA) concerning alleged failures by the institution to comply with the Act.

Local policy explains in detail the procedures to be used by Bloomsburg University for compliance with the provisions of the Act. Copies can be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs and Office of the Registrar. It is also printed in the Student Handbook and the University Bulletins. Questions concerning the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be directed to these offices.
