COACHES CORNER

Danny Hale is in his 13th season leading the Huskies' football program after a previous five-year coaching tenure at West Chester. Hale has a record of 106-38-1 at Bloomsburg, and is ranked in the top 10 among active coaches on the all-time NCAA Division II winning percentage list with a career record of 146-51-1. His 100th win as a Bloomsburg Husky was against Indiana (Pa.) this year. Hale was named the 2001 PSAC East Coach of the Year for the eighth time in his career along with picking up the American Football Coaches' Association (AFCA) Division II District I Coach of the Year for the seventh time. Following the 2000 season when Hale led the Huskies to the NCAA Division II title game, he was named the AFCA Division II National Coach of the Year. That year Hale led Bloomsburg to a 12-3 record. Hale was also named the AFCA District 1 Coach of the Year and the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year for 2000.

He also earned Coach of the Year honors from the PSAC East from 1994 to 1997, while in 1994 and 1995, he was honored by the AFCA District 1 as Coach of the Year. In 1999, Hale broke A.K. Aldinger's 94-year old record for most career wins by a Bloomsburg football head coach. Hale picked up his 100th career head coaching win against Kutztown towards the end of the 2000 season.

In 1997, Hale also coached Irv Sigler, the winner of the 1997 Harlon Hill Award as the nation's best Division II football player. As a result, he was named the 1997 PSAC East Coach of the Year for the fourth consecutive season.

Hale was named this year's PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the year for the sixth time in his career, guiding his Huskies to an undefeated regular season.

Denny Douds begins his 32nd year at the helm of Warriors football. He continues to field championship winning teams and produce outstanding players and quality men at ESU.

The senior football coach in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference continues to bring the same love and enthusiasm for coaching young men as when he started in 1974. He heads into his 32nd year in charge of the Warriors' program and 40th season on the coaching staff.

Douds, a native of Indiana, Pa., was a high school assistant coach in Erie, Pa. for two years and an assistant coach at West Virginia University for one year before accepting the ESU job. He started as the Warriors' tight end and linebacker coach and then became the team's defensive coordinator in 1968.

After eight years as an assistant, Douds took over as the school's eighth head coach. Douds' teams have posted a record of 188-127-3 for a .596 winning percentage. This ranks him fifth in victories among all NCAA Division II coaches.

Under Douds' direction, the Warriors have captured nine PSAC Eastern Division titles with solo first-place finishes in 1975, 1976, 1978, 1982, 1983 and 1991 and ties for the top spot in 1980 and the past two years in 2002 and 2003.

Douds was named the Kodak College Division Coach of the Year three times (1975, 1976, 1982), the PSAC Coach of the Year twice (1975, 1978) and the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times (1976, 1982, 2002). In 1976, he was the first unanimous winner of the Stan Lomax-Irving T. Marsh Award as selected by the New York Football Writers' Association as the Eastern College Division Coach of the Year.

The game total broke the previous NCAA Division II total offense record of 1,328 set in a contest between Saginaw Valley State (640) and Northwood (688) in 1998.

The Warriors received the opening kickoff and marched 57 yards in four plays, all runs. Carfagno scored from four yards out and Mark Brubaker kicked the PAT for a 7-0 lead two minutes into the game.

SCSU scored on its first possession when Jim Armstrong hit Jim Lukowiak from four yards out. The PAT was blocked.

The Warriors scored three straight touchdowns and never trailed by less than two touchdowns the rest of the way. Prall caught two of his touchdown passes in the first quarter, one for 38 yards and the other for 48, as the Warriors built a 20-6 lead after the first quarter.

Strenfel opened the second quarter with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Terwilliger to extend the lead to 27-6.

Southern Connecticut scored on a 22-yard Armstrong touchdown and forced the Warriors to punt on the following possession. The Owls were driving and could have got within seven points but cornerback Michael Wiggins made an interception in the end zone to end the drive.

Six plays later, Carfagno scored from three yards out for a 34-13 lead with less than two minutes to go in the first half. Wiggins forced a fumble and Matt Crispell recovered on the first drive of the opening half and the Warriors took advantage when Carfagno plunged in from a yard out for a 41-13 lead.

Harris ran for a 10-yard score and Rory Palmer scored from five yards out to get the Owls within 41-27 but Strenfel hauled in a 10-yard touchdown reception and Prall caught another from 10 yards out for a 55-27 advantage.

Bloomsburg opened the scoring on its first drive of the game when Lydic hit Donny Patrick with an 18-yard scoring pass for a 7-0 lead just 2:10 into the game.

Millersville then rallied and took a 21-7 lead with three consecutive touchdowns. The Marauders then extended the lead to 21-7 when Chaz Beasley recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a score.

Bloomsburg, though, tied the score going into the halftime with Lydic throwing two touchdowns passes. The first went to Brahin Bilal, a 29-yard strike, while Ryan Schuck caught an 11-yard pass just with just under two minutes left before half.

The Marauders opened the third quarter with 14-play, 95-yard drive capped off by a Juan Jones one-yard run to put the visitors in front 28-21. After a long kickoff return by the Huskies Greg McGhee put the ball in Millersville territory, Jamar Brittingham ran 42-yards on the first play from scrimmage for a touchdown to tie the game at 28-28.

In the fourth period, the Huskies again needed just one play to score with Brittingham racing 73-yards to put Bloomsburg in front 35-28.

BLOOMSBURG VS. EAST STROUDSBURG

LAST MEETING

The game between Bloomsburg and East Stroudsburg featured two of the nation's top D-II offensive threats in the Huskies' Jamar Brittingham and the Warriors' Jim Terwilliger. But in the end, it was the defensive play of Bloomsburg's Tyler Trettin which made the difference in a 31-24, overtime win for the Huskies October 1, 2005.

Trettin knocked down a fourth and seven pass from Terwilliger in overtime that set off a wild celebration for the Huskies and left the home crowd in stunned silence.

In the overtime session, the Huskies were on offense first and were facing a third and nine when Brittingham ripped off a 19-yard run to the Warrior five-yard line. On the next play, Brittingham bulled his way into the endzone putting Bloomsburg in front 31-24 after Garrett Bloom's extra point.

The Warriors then needed to score a touchdown to force a second overtime. After a rush for no gain, Terwilliger ran for three yards to the Bloomsburg 22-yard line. On third down Terwilliger threw low to Doug Odgen setting up the game's final play. Terwilliger then drooped back and tried to connect with Ogden again, but Trettin stepped in front of the pass and knocked it to the ground giving Bloomsburg the win.

The game started out with Terwilliger leading the Warriors on an eight play, 80-yard drive with Anthony Carfagno scoring from two yards out. The score was the first allowed by the Huskies on the road this season.

Later in the first Terwilliger moved the Warriors down to the Huskies' seven yard, but his second and goal pass was intercepted by Marcus Waddy in the endzone stopping the threat.

The Huskies then moved 80 yards in 12 plays with Brittingham scoring from five yards out to cap the scoring drive. On the drive Brittingham picked up 47 yards.

On the ensuing drive for East Stroudsburg, Terwilliger threw a 23-yard scoring pass to Evan Prall to put the home team back in front, 14-7 with 10:58 to play in the half.

After the teams traded punts, the Huskies scored the tying touchdown when Brittingham scored on a 12-yard run to make it 14-14 with 4:26 left in the half.

After the Bloomsburg defense forced a three and out series, the Huskies took their first lead of game when Brittingham scored his third touchdown of the half on a three-yard run with 1:38 to play.

The Bloomsburg defense made a play that would be one of several key plays in the game just before halftime. With the Warriors on the move for the game tying score, Bloomsburg's Phil Riccardi forced a fumble, recovered by Zac Barton on a wild, spinning hit of Terwilliger at the two-yard line with 16 seconds remaining in the period.

In the third period, the Warriors tied the score on an 11-yard run by Carfagno that capped a eight-play, 83-yard drive.

After another trade of punts, the Huskies took over and moved to the East Stroudsburg 13 yard before the drive stalled. From there Garrett Bloom drilled a 27-yard field goal to put Bloomsburg in front 27-24.

The teams then went back and forth in fourth period with the Huskies' defense making several more big plays. On a fourth and one from the Bloomsburg five with 7:45 to play in the game, Carfagno was stopped for no gain giving the Huskies the ball on downs. Later, with the Warriors driving for the potential go-ahead score, Greg McGhee intercepted Terwilliger at the four-yard line and returned it 55-yards into Warrior territory with just 2:22 to play.

At that point, it appeared that one more first down and the game would be over. However, East Stroudsburg stopped the Huskies on fourth and one from the Warrior's 32-yard line giving the home team one more shot.

With no timeouts, Terwilliger moved the Warriors downfield and appeared to have thrown the game winning score with just a second to play. But, Terwilliger was flagged for an illegal forward pass on the play and the Warriors had to settle for a game-tying field goal from Marc Brubaker forcing the extra session heroics.

In all Brittingham rushed 33 times for 206 yards and four scores with Christian Allen netting 83 on just seven carries. Quarterback Jack Lydic was 10-20 for 160 yards and one interception, while defensively, Phil Riccardi made 12 tackles, nine solo, with Keith Davis making eight tackles.

THE SERIES

East Stroudsburg leads the all-time series over the Huskies, 42-32-2. Coach Hale is 15-3 all-time versus East Stroudsburg including a 10-3 record at Bloomsburg and a 5-0 mark during his tenure at West Chester.

Under Coach Hale, the Huskies have won 10 of their last 12 games over the Warriors and are 5-1 in Bloomsburg.
