THE COACHES

Danny Hale is in his 16th season as the head coach of the Bloomsburg University football program. He also spent five years as the head coach at West Chester.

At Bloomsburg, Hale has posted a career record of 136-45-1 and holds the school record for most coaching victories. Overall in 21 years as a head coach he has a mark of 176-58-1 (.750) and is ranked among the top 10 active coaches in NCAA Division II in winning percentage. He has led the Huskies to 10 shared or outright PSAC Eastern Division titles and six NCAA post-season playoff berths (including this season).

In 2007, the Huskies posted a mark of 7-3. In 2006, the Huskies won the NCAA Northeast Regional title, while advancing to the NCAA Division II national semi-finals along with capturing the PSAC Eastern Division title. Hale was named the PSAC East Coach of the Year, the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II District I Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award. For being named a finalist he was featured on an ABC-TV special hosted by Keith Jackson.

The Huskies also reached the NCAA championships in 1996, 2000, 2001 and 2005. During the 2000 season the Huskies were 12-3 and advanced to the NCAA championship game, eventually losing in the title contest. The team reached the finals after rallying from a 19-point deficit against UC-Davis in the national semi-finals to post a 58-48 win. Hale earned the American Football Coaches Association Division II National Coach of the Year award following the season.

Hale has also earned AFCA District I Coach of the Year honors seven times, including back-to-back years of 2000 and 2001. He has been named the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year nine times, including four straight from 1994 to 1997.

Hale also coached Irv Sigler, the winner of the 1997 Harlon Hill Award as the nation's best Division II football player. Sigler finished the year as one of the few players ever in Division II history to average more than 200 yards per game rushing.

John Luckhardt is in his seventh season as head coach of the Vulcans after a most successful tenure as the head football coach and athletic director at nearby Washington and Jefferson College. The Vulcans are making their second straight NCAA playoff appearance under Luckhardt and won their fourth straight PSAC West title as well as the overall PSAC championship. In 2007 they finished 13-1 and reached the NCAA semifinals before falling to Valdosta (Ga.) State.

In six plus seasons, Luckhardt has guided the Vulcans to a 56-23 record. He led the 2005 Vulcans to their first PSAC West title in two decades with an 8-2 record, then followed with another championship season in 2006, 2007 and now in 2008. It was the first time in school history Cal has won four consecutive division championships. Luckhardt's career record in 21 seasons as a head coach is 180-59-2. In 17 seasons at W&J, Luckhardt compiled a 137-37-2 cumulative record. His Prexies won 13 President's Athletic Conference (PAC) Championships and five NCAA Division III regional championships.

LAST GAME

CALIFORNIA, PA 48, SETON HILL 7- NCAA PLAYOFFS 11/22

Behind a strong defensive performance and a quick-strike offense, the Vulcans registered a 48-7 victory over Seton Hill University in the second round of Super Regional One on Saturday at Adamson Stadium

The California University of Pennsylvania football team improves to 11-1 on the season, winning 10-straight games after suffering a tough 24-17 road loss against Bloomsburg in the second week of the season. The Vulcans entered the 24-team playoff as the second seed in Super Regional One after the Huskies received the top seed.

Graduate student quarterback Kevin McCabe set a pair of single-season school records in the victory after passing for 253 yards and three touchdowns. The former Pine-Richland standout has passed for 2,859 yards in his first year with the program, surpassing the 18-year old mark of 2,853 set by Sam Mannery in 1990. McCabe has also thrown for 28 scores, breaking the mark of 25 set by Joe Ruggiero last season. Against the Griffins, he completed 19-of-24 attempts (79.1 percent) with no interceptions after sitting out the majority of the fourth quarter.

In the victory, wide receiver Marcel Pestano registered seven receptions for 140 yards and two touchdowns. He is the first receiver in recent program history to surpass the 1,000-yards mark in a season (1,035) and is within reach of breaking the school record of 1,101 yards set by All-American Perry Kemp.

With the victory, head coach John Luckhardt is in sole possession of first place in school history with 56 career wins. During his tenure, the Vulcans have won four-consecutive PSAC West titles and advanced to the NCAA Playoffs in two-straight seasons.

The Cal U defense limited Seton Hill to only 211 yards of total offense, almost 175 yards less than the season average. The Vulcans registered five sacks and allowed the Griffins to convert only 2-of-13 third-down attempts. The only points scored by Seton Hill were via a fumble recovery.

BLOOMSBURG 28, WEST CHESTER 21-NCAA PLAYOFFS 11/22

Jesse Cooper's 62-yard interception return broke a 14-14 tie and lifted Bloomsburg University past West Chester University 28-21 in an NCAA Division II second round playoff game.

With the score tied at 14-all early in the fourth period, Cooper, who helped beat West Chester two years ago in the playoffs with a blocked field goal in the final minute, stepped in front of a Joe Wright pass and ran untouched into the end zone putting the Huskies in front for good. The return for a touchdown was the second of the season for Cooper.

Bloomsburg opened the game's scoring on its first drive of the game marching 70 yards in 11 plays with Stefan Adams going the final seven yards for the final seven yards for the score.

West Chester (9-4) though answered back on its next drive with Wright pushing his way in for a score on a fourth and goal play from the one-yard line.

In the second period, both teams had turnovers stop potential scoring drive. The Huskies were driving for a go-ahead score when quarterback Dan Latorre was sacked and fumbled the ball with the Golden Rams recovering at their own 18 yard line. Later, West Chester was in Bloomsburg territory when it too fumbled with the Huskies recovering.

Bloomsburg finally took the lead in the third period following a short punt from the Golden Rams. Taking over at the West Chester 46-yard line, the Huskies moved downfield with Latorre connecting on 3 of 3 passes with Adams going the final three yards for the score.

However, following a 52-yard kickoff return by Dan DePalma, which gave the Golden Rams the ball at the Bloomsburg 31-yard line, the Golden Rams needed just six plays to tie the game with Jackson Fagan scoring on a six-yard run with 5:12 left in the third.

In the fourth period the Golden Rams started a drive at their own five yard line and had moved down to the Bloomsburg 47. On a third and six play, Wright went back to throw, but Cooper came up and intercepted the pass on the run and went 62-yards for the score.

Following a three-out from West Chester, the Huskies marked 77 yards in 11 plays with Latorre hitting Kyle Ream, who was double-covered, with a 28-yard scoring pass for a 28-14 lead. The drive ate up nearly six and a half minutes of time leaving the Golden Rams just 3:36 to work with.

West Chester, though, wasted little time and needed just 1:37 to go 56 yards with Wright hitting Mike Washington with an 18-yard touchdown pass and making it a one-score game.

Bloomsburg recovered the on-side kick attempt and when Latorre hit Ream with a 32-yard completion on a third down play the win was sealed.

COACH HALE SOUNDS OFF

About last week against West Chester and this week about facing Cal.

“The WCU win was another great TEAM victory. It took, once again, all three phases of the game to play well in order to secure a victory over a very talented West Chester team.”

“The TEAM is excited about the challenge of playing California again. They are definitely a well coached team with a lot of talent. Their team speed is excellent and they’re playing with a great deal of confidence.

NCAA PLAYOFFS

Bloomsburg University is making its seventh trip to the NCAA playoffs this year. The Huskies have an overall mark of 7-6 in NCAA play, including a home playoff record of 5-1. The Huskies reached the NCAA championship game in 2000 and have advanced to the national semifinals on two other occasions, 1985 and 2006. Both times the Huskies were defeated.

This will be the first meeting between the Huskies and the Vulcans in the NCAA playoffs

OUT OF THE NCAA RECORD BOOKS

Bloomsburg lost its spot in the NCAA Division II playoff record book last weekend. The Huskies were listed as the team that had allowed the most points in an NCAA playoff, 63 to Delta State in the 2000 title game, but lost that mark when Abilene Christian beat West Texas A & M 93-68 in a second round game.

REMATCH

This marks the fifth time in school history and the second straight week that Bloomsburg will be facing a team it played earlier in the year. The four previous times all had different results: two losses to California in 1984, a win and a loss to East Stroudsburg in 2005 and to West Chester in 2008, and two victories over West Chester in 2006.

HALE WITH THE VULCANS

Bloomsburg's all-time record with California in a series that began in 1928 is 11-7-2, 8-1-1 at home, 3-5-1 at Cal, and 0-1 at a neutral site, the 1984 state title game in Hershey. The only time the Vulcans have ever won in Bloomsburg was earlier in the 1984 season by a score of 24-14. Danny Hale is 4-1 versus California while coach of the Huskies, including a perfect 3-0 at home.

LATORRE ON THE RUN

Quarterback Dan Latorre has rushed for a school record 463 yards as QB and tied his career-high with seven rushing TD's. Latorre also became the first QB in school history to rush for more than 100 yards in a game when he gained 125 yards against Shippensburg.

LATORRE THROUGH THE AIR

Latorre has moved into third place all-time at Bloomsburg in career passing yards with 5,517. He has completed 350 of 602 career passes with 48 touchdowns and just 17 interceptions. His 48 career TD passes are also third best in school history.

COOPER DOING IT ALL

Jesse Cooper has been Bloomsburg's Mr. Excitement during his career. Capable of changing a game in many ways, Cooper did it again last week against West Chester when he returned an interception 62-yard for a score to snap a 14-14 tie. It was Cooper's second interception for return for a touchdown this season. He also returned a kickoff 91-yards for score.

A year ago Cooper also scored three touchdowns. One on a 50-yard interception against East Stroudsburg; one on a 90-yard kickoff return against IUP and one on a 52-yard blocked kick against Kutztown. Overall he had four blocked kicks in 2007.

As a freshman Cooper returned a fumble for a touchdown and blocked a potential gamewinning field goal with less than a minute to play against West Chester in the NCAA playoffs.

ALL-PSAC

The Huskies put 15 players on the All-PSAC East team for 2008. It's the most players the Huskies have had since 2005, when they also had 16 players honored.

In addition, running back Derrick Price was named the PSAC East Freshman of the Year. It's the second time in the last three years that a Huskies freshman has earned the honor, as Dan Latorre won the award in 2006.

Leading the first team on offense are Price, Latorre, wide receiver Kyle Ream, guard Matt Bosso and placekicker Jon Koenig. On defense, the Huskies are represented by Jon Ochs, Greg Myers and Jesse Cooper. The second team offense features running backs Stefan Adams and Kenny Dolmzalski as well as offensive lineman Joe Kantz and Luke Beall. The defense features defensive lineman Earl McNeil and Alfonso Nathan as well as safety Dominique Price.

Kenny Domzalski's 23-yard scoring run with 54 seconds left in the game lifted the 25-th ranked Bloomsburg University Huskies to a 49-42, come-from-behind win over 15th ranked Ashland University in the season opener for both teams.

Domzalski's touchdown capped a furious second half comeback for Bloomsburg which trailed 35-14 at the break. The comeback was the biggest for the Huskies since trailing by 17 points (24-7) to East Stroudsburg in 2003 but rallied for a 40-37 win.

Trailing by 21 at the break, Bloomsburg started the second half with a nine-play, 73-yard drive capped off by Stefan Adams five yard scoring run to make it 35-21. After the Huskies defense forced the first Ashland punt of the game on the Eagles first drive of the second half, Bloomsburg marched 54 yards in just six plays with quarterback Dan Latorre hitting Kyle Ream with 32-yard scoring pass to make it 35-28 with 6:13 left in the third period.

Ashland went three and out on its next series with the Huskies quickly marching 68 yards in just three plays capped by Latorre hitting Ben Weaber with a 17-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 35-all with 2:11 left in the third. A key play in the drive was a 48-yard run by Domzalski.

Bloomsburg's defense made forced a big turnover early in the fourth period when Thomas McFarland (Pottsville/Pottsville) intercepted a Billy Cundiff pass giving the Huskies the ball at the Ashland 42-yard line. Two plays later Adams ran 31-yards for a score to give Bloomsburg its first lead of the game at 42-35.

Taking over on its own 35-yard line, Bloomsburg moved out to its own 47 on consecutive runs by Domzalski. Then following an incomplete pass, Ashland was flagged for a personal foul putting the ball at the Eagles 39-yard line. Fullback Ryan Maggs (Beech Creek/Central Mountain) then gained 16 yards on his first-ever carry, then Domzalski capped the comeback with his 23-yard run.

Ashland, though, still had time, but the Bloomsburg defense forced a fumble by the Eagles, but could only run the clock down to the 15 seconds giving the home team one more shot. The Eagles got a 26-yard completion to the BU 40, but a pass as time expired fell short and the Huskies got the win.

The first half, though was all Ashland as the Eagles scored five times, including its first score which came just 16 seconds into the game after an 84-yard opening season kickoff return by Horn.

Domzalski, in his first game for the Huskies, gained 172 yards on 16 carries and scored once. Fellow freshman Derrick Price also topped 100-yards gaining 132 on 24 carries with one score. Adams finished with 40 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Latorre finished 11 of 22 for 158 yards and three touchdowns and no interceptions. Red-shirt freshman Oscar Rivera's 52-yard interception return for a touchdown lifted 18th-ranked Bloomsburg University to a 24-17 win over fifth-ranked California (PA) University. The game was the first played in the newly renovated Redman Stadium and was played in a steady downpour.

Rivera's game-changing play came late in the third period with the Huskies clinging to a 17-14 lead. Vulcan's quarterback Kevin McCabe went back to pass, but Rivera stepped in front of the throw near mid-field and raced towards the end zone dragging McCabe with him for the final five yards. The return gave the Huskies a 24-14 lead, which they held on to for their second straight upset win of a higher-ranked team.

Bloomsburg started quickly in the game scoring on its opening possession with Stefan Adams capping the 76-yard drive with a four-yard run. A big play in the drive was a 30-yard run by freshman Derrick Price who gained a total of 72 yards on the drive on five carries.

In the second period the Huskies made it 14-0 when quarterback Dan Latorre scrambled 49-yards for a score. The first half for Bloomsburg was a marked difference from a week ago when the Huskies trailed 15th-ranked Ashland, 35-14. This week the Huskies allowed just 76 yards of offense, while gaining 228 themselves.

California got on the board in the third period when McCabe hit Marcel Pestano with a 49-yard scoring pass to bring the Vulcans within seven points at 14-7 with 8:39 left in the third.

After the Huskies recovered a muffed punt from Cal, on the next play Latorre was intercepted by Patrick Swearingner. The Vulcans then needed just three plays to tie the game with the score coming from Windell Brown on a 38-yard run with 5:59 to play in the third.

On its ensuing drive the Huskies moved inside the Cal 20-yard line before the drive stalled. Jon Koenig then hit a 35-yard field goal to put the Huskies in front 17-14.

It was on Cal's next drive that Rivera's game-changing play occurred. Later the Vulcans got back within a touchdown early in the fourth period when Derek Fiorenza connected on a 23-yard field goal to make it 24-17.

After Cal's defense forced a three and out for the Huskies, the Vulcans ate up over six minutes of clock, but had their drive stall at the Bloomsburg 33-yard line. McCabe threw three straight incompletions turning the ball over on downs with 1:48 to go.

Bloomsburg was able to run out the clock after Kenny Domzalski picked up a first down with an 11-yard run with under a minute to go.

#10 Bloomsburg Univer. vs C.W. Post

Dan Latorre passed for 133 yards and one score to lead Bloomsburg University to a 13-6 win over C.W. Post in Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference action.

The Huskies jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter scoring on their first drive of the game. Taking on its own 33-yard line, Bloomsburg drove to the CW Post 25-yard line before the drive stalled. Jon Koenig then connected on a 42-yard field goal putting the visitors in front.

Bloomsburg made it 10-0 with just 36 seconds left before halftime when Latorre hit Kyle Ream with a 12-yard pass for a 10-0 advantage.

C.W. Post got on the board in the third period putting together a nine-play, 64-yard scoring drive with Jason Gwaltney going in from nine-yards out. The extra point though failed and the Pioneers trailed by a score of 10-6.

In the fourth period, the Huskies added to their lead when Koenig hit his second field goal of the day, this one from 30-yards out for a 13-6 lead with 8:56 to go.

The Pioneers started the ensuing drive on the Bloomsburg 47-yard line after a good kickoff return and a personal foul on the Huskies. On third and eight from the 45-yard line yard, CW Post quarterback Nick Georgetti threw a long pass towards the end zone that was broken up at the last second by Alex Landis. The breakup prevented what could have been the tying score.

After the Huskies got the ball back and took more than five minutes off the clock, the drive stalled giving the Pioneers one more shot. But, on a third and three from the CW Post 42-yard line, the Huskies' Andre Ellis intercepted a Georgetti pass giving Bloomsburg the win.

Latorre finished the game 14-26 for 133 yards and the one touchdown, while tailback Derrick Price rushed for 89 yards. Defensively, Greg Myers had eight tackles to lead Bloomsburg.

Bloomsburg got a big break on the first punt of the game when Justin Rivera forced a Andy Tischbein fumble to set the Huskies up at midfield. From there, Price ripped off runs of 18 and 11 yards, capping it off with a 11 yard touchdown jaunt to put Bloomsburg up 7-0.

On the ensuing possession, Andre Ellis picked off his second pass of the season to give the Huskies the football at their own 36 yard line. On the ensuing kickoff, Bloomsburg's Jesse Cooper raced untouched down the Bloomsburg sideline on a 91-yard return to give Bloomsburg a 21-7 lead. It was the longest kickoff return in Cooper's career, breaking the mark of 90 he had in a game last season.

The Huskies took the second kickoff and marched 61-yards in eight plays with Latorre hitting Kyle Ream with a 20-yard pass to a 28-14 advantage. On Millersville's next drive it once again made it a one-touchdown game at 28-21 when Booker scored on a one-yard run.

EAST STROUDSBURG AT BLOOMSBURG
October 11, 2008

East Stroudsburg vs #6 Bloomsburg Univer. (Oct 11, 2008 at Bloomsburg, Pa)

BLOOMSBURG-- Derrick Price rushed for 113 yards and a score and the Bloomsburg University (7-0, 4-0 PSAC East) defense converted two turnovers into touchdowns to lead the Huskies to a 42-23 win over East Stroudsburg (5-2, 2-2 PSAC East) . The win was the 12th straight for the Huskies dating back to last year.

Bloomsburg's defense made the first big play in the game when Vince Browning intercepted a Tim Roken pass on the game's opening drive and returned it 58-yards for a touchdown just 1:34 into the game. The Huskies added to their lead on their first drive of the game marching 98-yards in 16 plays with Stefan Adams (West Chester/Henderson) covering the last three yards to give Bloomsburg a 14-0 after one period.

The defense made its second big play of the game late in the first period when Jesse Cooper recovered a fumble by Joe Partridge and returned it 20 yards to the Warriors 41-yard line. Eight plays later Adams scored his second touchdown of the game to make it 21-0 in favor of the Huskies.

After the Bloomsburg defense forced a three and out, quarterback Dan Latorre connected with Kyle Ream on a 77-yard scoring pass for 28-0 lead with 10:04 left in the third.

East Stroudsburg finally broke through with a 51-yard scoring drive with Partridge going from two-yards out to make it 28-7 with 4:04 left to play before halftime.

The Huskies put up one more score before halftime when Price, who leads the PSAC in rushing, ran 34-yards for a score to give Bloomsburg a 35-7 lead at the break.

East Stroudsburg began to chip away at the lead in the third period. Roken hit Doug Ogden with a five-yard scoring pass to cap a 67-yard drive. The big play in the drive was a 57-yard option pass by Sam Shuman to Ed Kiser for 57-yards putting the ball at the Bloomsburg 10-yard.

Early in the fourth quarter the Warriors defense sacked Latorre in the end zone for a safety bringing the Warriors to within 35-16 with 13:23 left in the game. After the Huskies free kick to the Warriors gave East Stroudsburg the ball at the ESU 46-yard line, Roken put together a three-play drive with Partridge scoring from four yards to make it a 35-23 game with 12:14 to go in the game.

After a short kickoff and a personal foul gave the Huskies the ball at midfield, Bloomsburg put together a strange scoring drive. After moving to the ESU 27-yard line, a loss, a delay of game penalty and a holding call put Bloomsburg in a third and 30 situation. Latorre then scrambled for 22-yards bringing up a fourth and eight and a field goal attempt. However, a false start penalty pushed the Huskies back five yards. Going for it on fourth and 12, Latorre hit Jordan Weisman with 30-yard scoring strike to put the game out of reach at 42-23.

Price finished with 113 yards on 16 carries, while Latorre was seven of 15 for 179 yards and two touchdowns for Bloomsburg. Defensively, Greg Myers had nine tackles.

Quarterback Dan Latorre (Elysburg/Southern Columbia) rushed for 125 yards and two touchdowns to lead Bloomsburg University (9-0, 6-0 PSAC East) to a 21-0 win over Shippensburg University in Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) action. The win was the 14th straight for the Huskies dating back to last year which ties the school record first set back during the 1949-50 seasons. The winning streak is the third longest in all of college football.

The 125 yards rushing for Latorre, on just eight carries, was a career-high, while the shutout was the second of the season for the Huskies.

Bloomsburg scored on its second drive of the game when Derrick Price (Burlington, NJ/Burlington City) ran 37-yards for a score. On the drive Bloomsburg converted a fourth and one, which two plays later led to Price's touchdown run. The Huskies added to their lead in the second quarter when Latorre scrambled 48-yards down the sideline for a touchdown to make it 14-0 capping a 91-yard scoring drive. A big play in the drive was a 26-yard pickup on a swing pass from Latorre to Price.

Then, just before halftime the Huskies added to their lead when Latorre scrambled out of the pocket again and went 47-yard down the sidelines for his second score of the day and a 21-0 lead.

In the second half, with the game being played in a steady rain, there was no scoring for either team.

Along with Latorre rushing for more than 100 yards, Price finished with 111 yards on 21 carries and a touchdown.

The win sets up a showdown next week with West Chester for the PSAC Eastern Division title. Kickoff at Bloomsburg's Redman Stadium is set for 3:30 p.m. Both teams are undefeated in PSAC East play with the winner advancing to the PSAC championship game on Nov. 8.

Bloomsburg vs. West Chester
November 22nd, 2008

Jesse Cooper's 62-yard interception return broke a 14-14 tie and lifted Bloomsburg University past West Chester University 28-21 in an NCAA Division II second round playoff game. The Huskies (11-1) will now face California (PA) in a Super Regional One final next Saturday at Redman Stadium at noon.

With the score tied at 14-all early in the fourth period, Cooper, who helped beat West Chester two years in the playoffs with a blocked field goal in the final minute, stepped in front of a Joe Wright pass and ran untouched into the end zone putting the Huskies in front for good. The return for a touchdown was the second of the season for Cooper.

Bloomsburg opened the game's scoring on its first drive of the game marching 70 yards in 11 plays with Stefan Adams going the final seven yards for the final seven yards for the score.

West Chester (9-4) though answered back on its next drive with Wright pushing his way in for a score on a fourth and goal play from the one-yard line.

In the second period, both teams had turnovers stop potential scoring drive. The Huskies were driving for a go-ahead score when quarterback Dan Latorre was sacked and fumbled the ball with the Golden Rams recovering at their own 18 yard line. Later, West Chester was in Bloomsburg territory when it too fumbled with the Huskies recovering.

Bloomsburg finally took the lead in the third period following a short punt from the Golden Rams. Taking over at the West Chester 46-yard line, the Huskies moved downfield with Latorre connecting on 3 of 3 passes with Adams going the final three yards for the score.

However, following a 52-yard kickoff return by Dan DePalma, which gave the Golden Rams the ball at the Bloomsburg 31-yard line, the Golden Rams needed just six plays to tie the game with Jackson scoring on a six-yard run with 5:12 left in the third.

In the fourth period the Golden Rams started a drive at their own five yard line and had moved down to the Bloomsburg 47. On a third and six play, Wright went back to throw, but Cooper came up and intercepted the pass on the run and went 62-yards for the score.

Following a three-out from West Chester, the Huskies marked 77 yards in 11 plays with Latorre hitting Kyle Ream, who was double-covered, with a 28-yard scoring pass for a 28-14 lead. The drive ate up nearly six and a half minutes of time leaving the Golden Rams just 3:36 to work with.

West Chester, though, wasted little time and needed just 1:37 to go 56 yards with Wright hitting Mike Washington with an 18-yard touchdown pass and making it a one-score game.

Bloomsburg recovered the on-side kick attempt and when Latorre hit Ream with a 32-yard completion on a third down play the win was sealed.

Latorre finished 11 of 15 for 129 yards and one score, while Wright was 20-39 for 262 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions.
