Bill Cleary

HEAD COACH

Second Season

Villanova, '98

Bill Cleary begins his second season as head coach of the Bloomsburg University women's basketball team in 2009-10. Cleary came to Bloomsburg after spending five seasons as head coach of the women's team at Wilmington University in New Castle, De.

At Wilmington he helped turn-around the Wildcats program from a two-win team into a 20-win team with a record the last four seasons of 54-60. During his last season, Wilmington finished 22-9 and was ranked in the NCAA Northeast Regional poll for the first time in school history ending the season with a ninth-place ranking.

Cleary also helped the Wildcats to the school's first ever women's basketball championship when the team won the ECAC Division II title with a victory over Caldwell College. Wilmington finished the year winning nine of its last 10 games.

Overall in Cleary's five seasons as head coach, the Wildcats made three trips to the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference playoffs and reached the semi-finals in 2007-08.

Prior to taking over at Wilmington Cleary spent one season as an assistant coach with the Towson (MD) University men's basketball team and two-years as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech where he earned a Master's Degree in Sports Administration. He was also an assistant men's basketball coach at Beaver College in Glenside, Pa.

Cleary is a 1998 graduate of Villanova University with a degree in Political Science. He and his wife Jackie are the parents of Billy, born in September of 2008.

Diane Decker

ASSISTANT COACH

Second Season

Villanova, '89

Diane Decker enters her second season as an assistant coach with the Bloomsburg University women's basketball team in 2009-10.

Decker came to Bloomsburg after spending three seasons at East Stroudsburg as an assistant coach. Last year Decker served as the acting head coach for the Warriors and posted a record of 12-15, 6-6 PSAC East earning a spot in the PSAC playoffs as the fourth seed from the Eastern Division. During her three seasons with the Warriors the team made the PSAC playoffs each year and in 2006-07 achieved the first 20-win season in 12 years.

Prior to East Stroudsburg, Decker spent three years as head coach at Freedom High School in Bethlehem, where she guided the Patriots to the District XI playoffs each season. In three years she led the team to a record of 82-15 and coached two 1,000-point scorers.

Decker was a standout player at Marian Catholic High School and Villanova University. The Wildcats played in the NCAA Tournament all four years during her college career, including her sophomore season when they went to the Sweet 16. She was a second team All-Big East selection in 1989 and helped the Wildcats capture the Big East championship in both 1987 and 1988. She also served as team captain her senior year.

At Marian Catholic High School, the Mahanoy City native set the school scoring record with over 2,300 points and also grabbed 1,000 rebounds and was selected honorable mention All-American by both Converse and USA Today. Marian Catholic won a state title and two district championships during her career, and she was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2006.

Cy Fulton

ASSISTANT COACH

Second Season

King's College, '65

Cy Fulton begins his second season at Bloomsburg after being a volunteer coach at East Stroudsburg. Prior to East Stroudsburg, Fulton was an assistant coach for Kean University, during which he helped lead the team to the NCAA Division III Elite Eight two years in a row.

A graduate of King's College in 1965, Fulton completed his bachelor's degree in English. He retired in 2005 after 35 years of teaching, the last 20 at Blue Mountain High School where he coached girl's basketball for three seasons, leading his team to the district playoffs each year.

Prior to Blue Mountain, Fulton taught and coached at Bishop Haffey. He lead his team to three league championships, one district 11 championship, and one PIAA Eastern.

Fulton lives with his wife Kathleen and has two children, Justin and Joshua.
