Bloomsburg Huskies (8-4) vs. #18 Pitt Panthers
Bloomsburg, PA • Nelson Field House
January 17, 2010

SETTING THE SCENE

Bloomsburg returns to the Nelson Field House on Sunday to start the EWL-portion of its season with a match against the 18th-ranked Pitt Panthers. The Huskies are coming off a tough weekend in Iowa at the NWCA National Duals falling to #2 ranked Iowa State and the host school, Northern Iowa.

LAST MATCH

Bloomsburg lost to the #2 Cyclones by a score of 38-7 with Matt Moley winning by major decision and Nate Graham posting a win by decision.

In the 22-16 loss to Northern Iowa, Moley had a major decision victory, while Jason Guffey and Rick Schmelyun both won by fall. Guffey, back up to the 133 pound weight class, posted his fall in 4:01, while Schmelyun recorded his fall in just 39 seconds.

STUTZMAN ON THE HUSKIES

On the NWCA DUALS....

"Anytime you wrestle at a national event you can take positive away from it. I thought we did not wrestle well, but we now understand the type of intensity that you must bring to every match in order to compete. I thought Matt Moley wrestled extremely well and we had some other good performances but we just were not consistent enough to come away with a few more wins.

On the Pitt Panthers....

They are an extremely tough team this year and are wrestling at a very high level. It should be a great EWL dual and we look forward to the challenge. The coaching staff does a great job with them and we expect to get there best and it should be a fun day.

SCHMELYUN THIRD IN CAREER PINS

With his pin in 39 seconds against Northern Iowa last week Rick Schmelyun moved into third place on the school's all-time career pin list with 36. Schmelyun's fall gives him seven for the season and moves him past for former Husky great Ed Hockenberry (1996-01). Former All-American Mike Spaid (2004-08) is next on the list with 45.

This season Schmelyun is fourth nationally in pins for 165 pounders with seven, while teammate Mike Dessino is fifth with six. Schmelyun is also ranked fifth in major decisions nationally at 165 pounds with six and is eighth in victories with 20.

SCHMELYUN WINS PSAC HONOR

Rick Schmelyun was named the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Wrestler of the Week for the period ending Jan. 4, 2010.

Schmelyun went 4-1 against some of the nation's top competition at the Southern Scuffle in Greensboro, N.C. His only blemish came in the finals when he lost a 6-1 decision to Dustin Schlatter of Minnesota, ranked No. 4 in the 165 lb weight class by Intermat.

Perhaps his most impressive win, Schmelyun picked up a 15-2 major decision over Edinboro's Jarrod King, the defending NCAA Champion, who had beaten Schmelyun, 4-0, at the PSAC Championships earlier this season. Schmelyun, who is ranked No. 18 by Intermat, downed the top-seeded King in the semifinals, handing him his first loss of the season.

In the quarterfinals Schmelyun downed No. 13 Paul Young of Indiana by a 12-2 count to claim another major decision. The Husky opened the tournament with a pair of wins by technical fall. Schmelyun's runner-up effort moved him to 19-5 on the season.

THREE OF THE NEXT FOUR AT HOME

After spending much of the first half of the season as 'road warriors' the Bloomsburg wrestling team will get to enjoy some home cooking and a friendly environment as it hosts three of its next four matches at the Nelson Field House.

Due to renovations at the Nelson Field House (the facility is undergoing a $15 million dollar renovation), the Huskies were forced to hit the road for the first two months of the season.

Bloomsburg's first home match at Nelson was Jan. 5 against Sacred Heart with three of the next four matches at home starting Jan. 17 with the Pitt match. The Huskies will also host Clarion on Friday, Jan. 29 with Cleveland State coming to town Sunday, Jan. 31.

The Huskies will then close out the regular season with road trips to Edinboro, Lock Haven and Rutgers.

GRAHAM EIGHTH NATIONALLY AT 174

Junior Nate Graham is ranked eighth nationally at 174 pounds with 21 victories this season. He became the first Huskies wrestler to reach the 20-win mark this season when he earned a win by fall against Sacred Heart on Jan. 5.

Graham's 21 wins are a career-best for the junior. His previous career best was set last when he posted a mark of 20-15 and finished third at the EWL Championships.

CLIMBING THE WIN LADDER

Seniors Matt Moley and Rick Schmelyun continue to climb the Huskies all-time win list.

Moley is now in tied for seventh place all-time with 113 wins, while Schmelyun is 13th with 108 victories.

Moley needs four more wins to move past former great Ricky Bonomo for sixth place, while Schmelyun is one shy of tying Dave Kennedy (1986-90) and Andy Cappelli (for 11th) spot on the all-time list.

STUTZMAN INCHING UP THE WINS LIST

Coach John Stutzman is off to a 8-4 start in the 2009-10 season and now has 48 career wins and is fourth on the school's all-time win list. He trails by 9 career wins Tom Martucci who is third with a mark of 57-61-2.

The career win leader Roger Sanders (1972-93) with 250 victories, 104 losses and eight ties.

HEAD COACH JOHN STUTZMAN

John Stutzman begins his fifth season as head coach of the Bloomsburg University wrestling team in 2009-10.

Under his tutelage, he has produced 18 wrestlers who have qualified for the NCAA Division I Championships and produced an All-American in three consecutive years (the first time since 1985-89 that Bloomsburg has produced an All-American in at least three straight years), while recording 40 dual meet victories. He was named the 2007 EWL Coach of the Year, earned national recognition as a team, produced the 2007 EWL/PSAC Freshman of the Year as well as the 2009 EWL tournament's outstanding wrestler.

Prior to becoming Bloomsburg University's head wrestling coach, he was an assistant coach for seven years at the Division I level. During those seven seasons, Stutzman worked at three very successful universities: the University at Buffalo, Northern Illinois University and Bloomsburg. Throughout that time, he assisted in the development and maturation of six conference champions, 22 Division I NCAA qualifiers, and two Division I All-Americans. He has recruited six classes that have been ranked in the top 25 nationally.

In addition to his college coaching duties, Stutzman has coached with the New York Athletic Club at the 2004 and 2008 USA Olympic Freestyle Trials, as well as the 2006, 2007, and the 2009 World Team Trials. During this time he coached five Three World Team Trials participants, Two Olympic Team Trials participants, and one USA National Team Member. He was also an assistant wrestling coach for the 2009 NWCA All-American tour in Seoul, South Korea. and was the assistant wrestling coach for Team USA for the University Team in Poland in 2009.

HUSKIES EIGHTH AT THE SCUFFLE

Bloomsburg finished eighth at the Southern Scuffle in Greensboro, NC totalling 74 points.

Three Bloomsburg wrestlers were placewinners at the event. Rick Schmelyun was second at 165; Matt Moley fourth at 157 and Frank Hickman sixth at 149.

Schmelyun was dominant in reaching the finals picking up two wins by technical fall and then beating the defending national champion, Jarrod King of Edinboro, by major decision in the semi-finals.

Moley dropped a close match in the quarterfinals to then 10th-ranked Kurt Kinser of Indiana and finished with a fourth place finish after falling to then 16th-ranked Bryce Saddoris of Navy in the consolation finals.

Hickman had the toughest road to a placewinner finish. The red-shirt freshman dropped his opening match and had to wrestle nine other matches in the two-day stretch. Hickman finished the tournament with a record of 7-3.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

Several Bloomsburg University wrestlers are ranked among the nation's best in the latest rankings for NCAA Division I wrestling.

According to InterMat senior Matt Moley is ranked ninth at 157 pounds, while senior Rick Schmelyun moves to 11th at 165.

According to D1CollegeWrestling.net Moley is ninth, Schmelyun number 10 and Roosa 24th in the country, while the Wrestling Insider Newsmagazine (WIN) has Moley 11th and Schemelyun 11th.

MAKING A GREAT FIRST IMPRESSION

In his first dual match of the year, freshman Joe McAuley made a great first impression. The 141-pounder scored a first period pin in just 1:06 against Sacred Heart to help the Huskies to an easy win. All of McAuley's previous action for the season had been in tournament action.

COFFEY POSTS HIGH HIGH IN WINS

Red-shirt junior Derek Coffey, who wrestles at 184 pounds, has posted a career-high in wins with 17 this season. The transfer from Old Dominion had a previous of 13 victories as freshman at ODU.

HOW MANY POINTS DID HE TOTAL?

In his match at 133 pounds against Findlay in December, BU's Jeremiah Biddle won by technical fall outscoring his opponent by a score of 34-19. The 34 points were the most points registered in a match this season for the Huskies. The previous best mark was 20 by Jason Guffey in two bouts at the Navy Classic, while Frank Hickman scored 19 in his match at Penn State.

A year ago, Ian Moser scored the most in a match when he picked up 23 in a match against West Virginia.
