SETTING THE SCENE

The Bloomsburg Huskies are coming off a sweep of its opening season matches last Saturday posting wins over Boston University (26-9) and Millersville (40- (-1). Bloomsburg won seven of the 10 matches against Boston University and captured all 10 against Millersville. (Each team was penalized one team point).

STUTZMAN ON THE OPENING WEEKEND

“We performed well being our first competition and our first time down to weight,” said Stutzman. “I thought the young guys wrestled really well. Of course its early and we have a lot to work on but I felt the day went well. As far as Penn State, this is a big test for us to see where we are as a team. Its early so I have to keep that in mind but we are excited and we anticipate wrestling a great match and putting everything on the line.

2009-10 SEASON OUTLOOK

The Bloomsburg Huskies come into the 2009-10 season with big goals. Those goals include being a top 20-ranked program, competing for an EWL championship and getting multiple All-Americans.

A year ago the Huskies posted a mark of 9-7 and had an All-American for the third straight year. It was the first time that the Huskies have had an All-American in three straight years since a run of five straight years from 1985 to 1989.

The All-American, Matt Moley at 157 pounds, was sixth last year after taking eighth place as a sophomore. He goes into the season needing just 31 wins to become the school's all-time leader in career wins.

MOLEY AND SCHMELYUN RANKED IN PRE-SEASON

Matt Moley and Rick Schmelyun are ranked nationally in the Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (IWA) Division I preseason rankings for the 2009-10 season.

Moley, a senior who wrestles at 157 pounds, is ranked second in the country at his weight by Intercollegiate Wrestling Association. He is a two-time All-American earning a sixth place finish last year as a junior after an eighth place finish as a sophomore. Moley was selected as one of the participants in the NWCA All-Star classic to be held in November in Fullerton, California.

A year ago, Moley, who was ranked in the top 10 of his weight class all season long, led the Huskies with a record of 36-8, including a dual meet record of 12-1. Of his 36 wins, 21 (more than 58 percent) came by way of fall, technical fall or major decision. At the Eastern Wrestling League championships Moley captured his first EWL title with a win over his long-time rival from Edinboro who came into the event ranked number one in the country and undefeated. Moley earned an 8-5 win and was named the Outstanding Wrestler of the event. He was also named the EWL Wrestler of the Week on Nov 30th. He will enter his senior year just two wins shy of 100 and just 28 wins shy of setting a new school record for career victories.

Schmelyun is ranked 19th in the preseason poll by Intercollegiate Wrestling Association. Schmelyun, who wrestles at 165-pounds, posted a mark of 32-15 as junior and qualified for the NCAA championships for the first time in his career. He was one of the leaders in Division I lead for pins in his weight class with 15. Among his 15 pins were five in less than a minute, including one in 38 seconds. During the season Schmelyun finished fifth at the EWL championships and was second in the PSAC championships. For his career, he is 88-48.

MOLEY TO WRESTLE AT NWCA ALL-STAR CLASSIC

Matt Moley has been selected to participate in the National Wrestling Coaches Association's (NWCA) All-Star Classic to be held in Fullerton, Ca. on Sunday, Nov. 22.

Bloomsburg head coach John Stutzman is thrilled for Moley.

"It's a great honor to wrestle in this event," said Stutzman. "This is great for the Bloomsburg, our team and for Matt who has worked extremely hard and it is a honor that is well deserved."

Moley will be the seventh wrestler from Bloomsburg to participate in the NWCA All-Star Classic. Ron Russo was the first Bloomsburg selection in the 1969 event and posted an 11-5 win over Len Groom of Northern Colorado. In 1974 the late Shorty Hitchcock lost his bout 5-3 to Mel Renfro of Washington State, while in 1981 Don Reese tied Jim Gibbons of Iowa State 6-6. In 1985 the Huskies had both Ricky and Rocky Bonomo take part in the Classic. Ricky lost 7-1 to Mark Perry of Oklahoma State with Rocky falling to Barry Davis of Iowa, 20-9. In 1989 Dave Morgan was the last Bloomsburg wrestler to take part in the event losing to Joe Pantaleo of Michigan, 6-1.

The NWCA All-Star Classic is an All-Star wrestling dual pitting the top collegiate wrestlers in the nation against each other in a showcase that is often a preview of the NCAA Division I Championships. The event will include 10 collegiate weight classes along with several local feature bouts involving college wrestlers. This year's event will be held at Cal State Fullerton's Titan Gym.

The Bloomsburg University wrestling team is one of 16 Division I teams that has been invited to the event.

"This is a great honor for our wrestling program," said Bloomsburg head coach John Stutzman. "I am excited for the student-athletes as our program continues to grow. It really does show that you can compete at a high-level here at Bloomsburg. Still, we are not where we want to be, but we are making strides to achieving our team and individual goals. HEAD COACH JOHN STUTZMAN

John Stutzman begins his fifth season as head coach of the Bloomsburg University wrestling team in 2009-10.

Under his tutelage, he has produced 18 wrestlers who have qualified for the NCAA Division I Championships and produced an All-American in three consecutive years (the first time since 1985-89 that Bloomsburg has produced an All-American in at least three straight years), while recording 40 dual meet victories. He was named the 2007 EWL Coach of the Year, earned national recognition as a team, produced the 2007 EWL/PSAC Freshman of the Year as well as the 2009 EWL tournament's outstanding wrestler.

Prior to becoming Bloomsburg University's head wrestling coach, he was an assistant coach for seven years at the Division I level. During those seven seasons, Stutzman worked at three very successful universities: the University at Buffalo, Northern Illinois University and Bloomsburg. Throughout that time, he assisted in the development and maturation of six conference champions, 22 Division I NCAA qualifiers, and two Division I All-Americans. He has recruited six classes that have been ranked in the top 25 nationally.

In addition to his college coaching duties, Stutzman has coached with the New York Athletic Club at the 2004 and 2008 USA Olympic Freestyle Trials, as well as the 2006, 2007, and the 2009 World Team Trials. During this time, I coached five Three World Team Trials participants, Two Olympic Team Trials participants, and one USA National Team Member. He was also an assistant wrestling coach for the 2009 NWCA All-American tour in Seoul, South Korea. and was the assistant wrestling coach for Team USA for the University Team in Poland in 2009.

ONE FOR 100

Senior Matt Moley needs just one more win to reach 100 for his career. He would become the 14th wrestler in school history to reach the plateau and the first since Mike Sees and Mike Spaid reached the mark in the 2007-08 seasons.

With his 100th win Moley would tie Tony Reed (1986-90) for 14th place on the school's all-time list as he sets his sights on 128 victories which would establish a new school record.

So far in his career Moley has posted victory totals of 27, 34 and 36.
