INSTRUCTIONS

Check the box next to the program for which you would like to be considered for conditional acceptance. If you would like to be considered for both Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology programs, check the “consideration for both” box, and then indicate 1 in the box for your top program choice, and 2 in the box for your second program choice.

Note: You may only receive conditional acceptance into one program; however, you may still apply to the other program through the regular application process.

CRITERIA

- The applicant must have completed a minimum of 24 credits in the major and non-major required courses by the end of the Fall 2020 semester.
- The applicant must have a minimum overall GPA of 3.50 at the end of the Fall 2020 semester.
- The applicant must have earned no grade lower than a C in any course.
- Conditional acceptance into the Fall graduate cohort in Speech-Language Pathology or Audiology will be based upon ranking of overall GPA (last 60 credits).
 - For the M.S. in Speech-Language Pathology program, the top 15 (and ties) will be offered conditional acceptance.
 - For the Doctor of Audiology program, the top 8 and ties will be offered conditional acceptance.
- Students awarded conditional acceptance must still submit a completed application to the School of Graduate Studies for formal admission to the Audiology or Speech-Language Pathology program.

If a student does not gain admission through the Conditional Acceptance program, he or she can still apply through the regular application process.

The submission of this form indicates that I am interested in applying for the M.S. and/or the AuD. program at Bloomsburg University. If I am awarded conditional acceptance, it is my intent to attend one of those programs at Bloomsburg University.
