Minor in Creative Writing
(administered by the English Department)

The Minor in Creative Writing consists of 18 credit hours with these requirements:

- English 204 – Introduction to Creative Writing (3 credits)

*Any two of the following pairs (4 courses – 12 credits):

- English 260 – Literary Non-Fiction
  then
- English 302 – Non-Fiction Writing Workshop

- English 274 – Short Story
  then
- English 301 – Fiction Writing Workshop

- English 280 – Poetry
  then
- English 303 – Poetry Writing Workshop

- Theatre 102 – Introduction to Theatre
  then
- Theatre 340 – Scriptwriting

Any one of the following (3 credits):

- English 316 – The Practice of Creative Writing
- English 404 – Creative Writing Seminar
- Any 300 or 400 English Literature course
- Any 300 or 400 English Linguistics course

*To take a 300-level Creative Writing Workshop course, students must first complete the related literature course. For example, students need to take English 274 – Short Story before taking English 301 – Fiction Writing Workshop. While it is not a prerequisite in the Theatre Arts B.A., those who wish to count Theatre 340 toward the Creative Writing minor (or major) must first take Theatre 102.

May require instructor permission.

Effective Fall 2017