

Frozen Waterfall Ice Hike

A group of hikers in winter gear, including helmets and backpacks, are walking through a snowy forest. Large, frozen waterfalls are visible on the left side of the path. The hikers are using ice axes and crampons. The scene is set in a winter wonderland with snow-covered trees and a path leading through the forest.

2/19/22,
10am-5pm

Ricketts Glen State Park

$30 per person

Transportation Included!

Explore an exclusive world of ice and snow, with ice axe and crampons, you have everything you need to master the adventure of winter hiking. Experience the majesty of over 30 waterfalls frozen over by trekking crystalline wonderland that is Ricketts Glen State Park in the winter.