<td>Received anonymous reports alleging individuals associated with Pi Lambda Phi were violating university policies around hazing. Specifically, the university received anonymous reports that individuals associated with Pi Lambda Phi were committing acts of mental and emotional abuse on pledges and younger brothers, additionally forcing them to do household chores and consume alcohol underage. A follow up anonymous report alleged that pledges were being coached to deny any allegations against the chapter organization. Bloomsburg University terminated its fraternity and sorority life (FSL) program on 5/13/21 and severed ties with all national and local FSL organizations currently affiliated with the University. Investigation continued to determine if specific individuals were responsible but concluded on 7/29/21 there was not enough evidence to charge anyone with hazing.</td>

Date Resolved = 9/27/2021
Sanction Dates = n/a | Hazing, Alcohol | Received a report alleging the men’s and women’s 2019-2020 swim teams were violating university policies around hazing and alcohol. Specifically, it is alleged that members of the swim team were forced to wear swimsuits across and off campus and participate in a “bikini and speedo party” at which they would have personal belongings confiscated and be forced to drink. Both Teams were found responsible for Alcohol Violations, but not responsible for Hazing. Members of both teams were required to attend an alcohol education workshop and both teams were put on Organizational Probation through the end of the Fall 2022 semester. |

Initiated investigation = 10/22/2020
Date Resolved = 12/16/20
Sanction Dates = n/a | Hazing | Received two anonymous reports referencing the same date of incident. Report 1: Pledges had to regularly attend lineups where they were screamed at, blindfolded, and locked in rooms. Forced to eat and drink things that they were unaware of while blindfolded like raw fish. Pledges were forced to grab poop out of a toilet. Also forced to consume a large amount of alcohol on their ins night. Report 2: Locked their pledges in different rooms with blindfolds. Made them eat a bunch of things including goldfish and being told to drink others spit. Had them put their hands in the toilets to grab something out of it. The pledges had to attend lineups regularly and were forced to drink alcohol on ins night. After exhausting the resources available, the Office of the Dean of Students has determined that the alleged violations of the Code of Conduct are unfounded. |
