PLAYWORK CERTIFICATE

The Playwork Certificate provides students with core content related to the theory and practice of the Playwork profession. This Certificate does not provide students with certification in Playwork, but it is endorsed by both Leeds Beckett University in the United Kingdom, the premier Playwork degree program in the world, and by Skills Active, the premier Playwork accrediting body in the United Kingdom. Students must earn at least a C in each class of the Playwork Certificate program as per College of Education requirements and must receive advisement from the Department of Teaching and Learning in regard to course selection.
