

Student Withdrawal and Treatment of Title IV Funds

Fall/Spring Title IV Withdrawal

Any student who is receiving Federal financial aid and is contemplating withdrawal from the university should contact the Financial Aid Office or the Bloomsburg University Student Billing Office to determine how the Federal return policy governing financial aid will affect them.

If a student withdraws on or before completing 60 percent of the semester, the student is only entitled to financial aid based on the percentage of time that was completed.

For Fall 2022 I, completion of 60% of the semester would be Saturday, October 22, 2022.

For Fall 2022 II, completion of 60% of the semester would be Monday, September 19, 2022.

For Fall 2022 III, completion of 60% of the semester would be Friday, November 11, 2022.

For Spring 2023 I, completion of 60% of the semester would be Saturday, April 1, 2023.

For Spring 2023 II, completion of 60% of the semester would be Monday, February 20, 2023.

For Spring 2023 III, completion of 60% of the semester would be Thursday, April 20, 2023.

If a student withdraws from Bloomsburg University, a portion of the Title IV financial aid funds the student received may need to be returned to the federal government.

The student should note that PHEAA may still require a reduction of the Pennsylvania Grant if a student's charges are reduced as a result of a withdrawal from one or more classes or a complete withdrawal from Bloomsburg University.

If a student who has borrowed from the Direct Loan program withdraws from Bloomsburg University, the student must repay these loans according to the terms of the promissory note.
