As a Bloomsburg University clinical student attending a host school, you are required to understand, inquire about costs and make payment directly to the host school. While Bloomsburg University will process your financial aid, we will NOT pay the host school on your behalf. If you would like to receive financial aid to assist with payment, you will need to:

- File a FAFSA and continue to list Bloomsburg as your school choice.
  - EXCEPTION: If you are attending Drexel, Thomas Jefferson, SUNY Upstate Medical or the RT program at Reading you will receive financial aid through the clinical site and must list their school code on your FAFSA.

- Continue to monitor your BU email and MyHusky account for the duration of your clinical program to see if you have been selected for verification or need to update your expected graduation date.

Consortium/Contractual Agreements:

Bloomsburg University Financial Aid Office, will for most schools, enter into a Consortium/Contractual Agreement with the other school. This is student and site (host school) specific and handled by the Financial Aid Office. Our office cannot disburse aid until the signed agreement is received and must be updated each year. This provides us with tuition, fees, books and supplies for the entire enrollment period of your program. We will adjust your tuition, fees and books based upon the data we receive back from this agreement.

Registration – Confirmation of Attendance: (Student Task)

- This must be completed at the beginning of each semester even while you are in clinical available on your “To Do” list in MyHusky.
- Failure to register will result in your federal financial aid not being disbursed.
Verification: (Potential Student Task)

- Verification is a process where we are required to collect tax and other data to confirm that the information entered is correct on the FAFSA.
- Student can be selected for verification by the federal processor/government.
- If selected, students must provide the signed documentation that is being asked for by our office in to our secure portal before student financial aid can be finalized.
- Student will be notified through their BU email and on the “To Do List” in MyHusky.
- If selected for Verification, submit your required items in to our secure portal as soon as possible to the financial aid office. Failure to complete this will result in not receiving your financial aid.

Disbursements:

- Financial aid disbursements will continue to occur on the regular Bloomsburg University schedule.
- There are no early disbursements possible so plan accordingly.
- Financial aid is disbursed once a week, normally on Wednesday’s. It will take 3-5 days for refunds to show with your banking institution.
- If you do not have a balance at Bloomsburg University, a refund check will be generated.
- If interested, set up a bank account for direct deposit.
- It is YOUR responsibility to pay the clinical site and communicate with the site regarding payment.

Withdraws:

- If you need to withdraw from your clinical program, please contact your clinical site and Bloomsburg University ASAP.
- Aid may need to be adjusted based on the date of the withdraw.

Other Costs – Cost of Attendance Appeal: (Potential Student Task)

If you require additional aid to pay for clinical related expenses, a separate Cost of Attendance Appeal must be submitted along with required documentation. Please be advised that based upon when you submit these items, processing time may take up to 2 weeks. Also note, there will be items that are not covered. Review the form completely before submitting items to our office. Incomplete or lack of documentation will result in a delay of your request.

Bloomsburg University’s Financial Aid Office has a student budget already in place that includes costs associated with tuition, room, board, fees, transportation and personal expenses. An appeal will be considered only if the ACTUAL costs exceed the already budgeted Cost of Attendance. Documentation must be provided to substantiate your request and estimates are not permitted.
